

Alejandro Nieto Enríquez

Coordinateur, Institut National pour le Fédéralisme et le Développement Municipal du Mexique (INAFED)

Why you should listen :

Rodrigo Alejandro Nieto Enríquez is an architect and Coordinator of The National Institute for Federalism and Municipal Development of Mexico. Since 2014 he has been responsible for Mexico's preparations for the Habitat III Conference on Housing and Sustainable Urban Development.

In recent years he has held the offices of Director General for Mexico's National Committee on Housing (CONAVI), and Subsecretary for Urban Development and Housing at the Secretariat for Rural, Territorial and Urban Development (SEDATU). Previously he has been a Deputy in the Federal District Congress, Director General for Land Registry and Secretary of State for Economic Development, and Secretary of State for Urban Development and Public Works in Mexico.

Enlaces

[1] <https://twitter.com/alejandronietoe?lang=es>