

Gabriella Jaramillo

Deputy Governor of Imbabura, Member of Association of Autonomous Provincial Governments of Ecuador (CONGOPE)

Why you should listen :

Graduated from the Pontifical Catholic University of Ecuador (PUCE) in business management, Gabriela Jaramillo is vice-prefect of the Province of Imbabura since 2014; his vision rely on working with political and social actors seeking the provincial balance, in order to promote sustainable development and with a central concept of public participation in decision-making. She boosted several productive, irrigation and the environment projects; and in particular the creation of the Protection Center for Women and Family, a place where interdisciplinary team provides psychological and legal assistance to victims of domestic violence.
