

Maria Alejandra Saleme

International Cooperation Officer of Medellín

Why you should listen :

Maria Alejandra Daza is Saleme Projects Professional in the Agency for Cooperation and Investment of Medellín - ACI Medellín in the City of Medellín. She has a Bachelor degree in Government and International Relations of the Externado de Colombia University and a Master degree in International Law and International Relations at the Complutense University of Madrid.

From 2013 in ACI Medellín, she is responsible for coordinating and monitoring all processes and opportunities in international cooperation with international partners in urban and social development areas. Related to food security, she actively participates in the activities of the Milan Urban Food Policy Pact - MUPP, creating spaces for knowledge exchange for Medellín around the world.

