

Rémy Rioux

Chief Executive Officer of French Development Agency (AFD)

Why you should listen :

Rémi Rioux is Chief Executive Officer of Agence Française de Développement since June 2016.

In 2014, he headed the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Development, at the request of Laurent Fabius, who appointed him as Deputy General Secretary.

During his career, Rémy Rioux, Senior Advisor at the Court of Auditors, has alternately held responsibilities in France and to support development in Africa. He works for France's economic and financial policy and conducted control missions in the energy and defense sectors at the Court of Auditors from 1997 to 2000, and subsequently from 2002 to 2004. At the Ministry of the Interior from 2000 to 2002, with Minister Daniel Vaillant, he was responsible for the management of the Ministry and the changeover to the euro.

---

Enlaces

[1] <https://twitter.com/riouxremy>